Under Constitution of 1818

Constitutional Provisions. Constitution of 1818

Art. II.

"Sect. 23. The Governor and all other civil officers under this state shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office; but judgment in such cases shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualifications to hold any office of honour, profit or trust under this state. The party whether convicted or acquitted shall nevertheless be liable to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment according to law."

"Sect. 25...nor shall any person holding an office of honour or profit under the government of the United States, hold any office of honour or profit under the authority of this state."

"Sect. 26. Every person who shall be chosen or appointed to any position of trust or profit, shall, before entering upon the duties thereof, take an oath to support the constitution of the United States and of this state, and also on oath of office."

Art. III.

"Sect. 13. A Lieutenant-governor shall be chosen at every election for governor, in the same manner, continue in office for the same time, and possess the same qualifications. In voting for governor and lieutenant-governor, the electors shall distinguish whom they vote for as governor, and whom as lieutenant-governor."

"Sect. 14. He shall be virtue of his office be speaker of the senate, have a right when in committee of the whole to debate and vote on all subjects, and whenever the senate are equally divided to give the casting vote."

"Sect. 15. Whenever the government shall be administered by the lieutenant-governor, or he shall be unable to attend as speaker of the senate, the senators shall elect one of their own members as speaker for that occasion; and if during the vacancy of the office of governor, the lieutenant governor shall be impeached, removed from office, refuse to qualify, resign or die, or be absent from the state, the speaker of the senate shall in like manner administer the government."

"Sect. 16. The lieutenant governor while he acts as speaker of the senate shall receive for his service the same compensation which shall for the same period be allowed to the speaker of the house of representatives, and no more; and during the time he administers the government as governor, he shall receive the same compensation which the governor would have received had he been employed in the duties of his office."

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Under Constitution of 1870

Constitutional Provisions. Constitution of 1870.

Art. IV. Legislative Department

Sect. 9..."and the Senate shall choose a temporary President to preside when the Lieutenant Governor shall not attend as President or shall act as governor."

Art. V. Executive Department

"Sect. 1. The executive Department shall consist of a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Attorney General, who shall, each, with the exception of the Treasurer, hold his office for the term of four years from the second Monday of January next after his election, and until his successor is elected and qualified. They shall, except the Lieutenant Governor, reside at the seat of government during their term of office, and keep the public records, books and papers there, and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law." .

"Sect. 3. An election for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, and Attorney General, shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and every four years thereafter."

"Sect. 4. The returns of every election for the above named officers shall be sealed up and transmitted, by the returning officers, to the Secretary of State, directed to the 'The Speaker of the House of Representatives,' who shall, immediately after the organization of the House, and before proceeding to other business, open and publish the same in the presence of a majority of each House of the General Assembly, who shall, for that purpose, assemble in the hall of the House of Representatives. The person having the highest number of votes for either of said offices shall be declared duly elected; but if two or more have an equal, and the highest number of votes, the General Assembly shall, by joint ballot, choose one of such persons for said office. Contested elections for all of said offices shall be determined by both houses of the General Assembly, by joint ballot, in such manner as may be prescribed by law."

"Sect. 5. No person shall be eligible to the office of Governor, or Lieutenant Governor, who shall not have attained the age of thirty years and been, for five years next preceding his election, a citizen of the United States and of this State. Neither the Governor, Lieutenant Governor...[etc.] shall be eligible to any other office during the term for which he shall have been elected. The Governor, and all civil officers of the State, shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office."

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR (con't)
Under Constitution of 1870 (con't)
Constitutional Provisions (con't)

Art. V. (con't)

"Sect. 17. In case of the death, conviction or impeachment, failure to qualify, resignation, absence from the state, or other disability of the Governor, the powers, duties and emoluments of the office for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall be removed, shall devolve upon the Lieutenant Governor."

"Sect. 18. The Lieutenant Governor shall be President of the Senate, and shall vote only when the Senate is equally divided. The Senate shall choose a President, pro tempore, to preside in case of the absence or impeachment of the Lieutenant Governor or when he shall hold the office of Governor."

"Sect. 19. If there shall be no Lieutenant Governor, or if the Lieutenant Governor shall, for any of the causes specified in Sect. 17 of this article, become incapable of performing the duties of the office, the President of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy is filled or the disability removed; and if the President of the Senate, for any of the above named causes, shall become incapable of performing the duties of Governor, the same shall devolve upon the Speaker of the House of Representatives."

"Sect. 23. The officers named in this article shall receive for their services a salary, to be established by law, which shall not be increased or diminished during their official terms, and they shall not, after the expiration of the terms of those in office at the adoption of this constitution, receive to their own use any fees, costs, perquisites of office, or other compensation. And all fees that may hereafter be payable by law for any services performed by any officer provided for in this article of the constitution, shall be paid for in advance into the state treasury."

"Sect. 24. Definition of terms "office" and "employment."

"Sect. 25. All civil officers, except members of the General Assembly and such inferior officers as may be by law exempted, shall, before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation. [Text]...and no other oath, declaration or text shall be required as a qualification."

Object of institution

Pub.L. 1865, p.78. Preamble, "whereas, it has been made to appear to the satisfaction of this body, that there is in this state a large number of persons commonly known as idiots or imbeciles, for whose instruction, training and relief no provision has been made; and whereas, it has further been made to appear that a large proportion of such unfortunate persons, under judicious and proper training, may, to a large degree, be elevated in the scale of intelligence, and greatly improved in physical ability."

L. 1871/72, p.417. "The object of said corporation shall be to promote, by all proper and feasible means, the intellectual, moral and physical culture of that unfortunate portion of the community who have been born, or by disease have become idiotic, imbecile or feeble-minded, and by a judicious and well adopted course of instruction and training, and management, to ameliorate their condition, and to develop as much as possible their intellectual faculties to reclaim them from their hopeless condition, and fit them, as far as possible, for future usefulness in society."

L. 1875, p.105. Composition: The 3 civil service commissioners of the ILLINOIS CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

Duties: To adopt rules and regulations and conduct examinations for a registry of positions in county departments of public welfare (superintendents and members of their administrative staffs).
Examinations for positions in the County Department of Public Welfare shall be held on a State wide basis for all counties covered by this Act. It shall be mandatory upon the Director of the Department of Public Welfare, when making appointments, to select from county registers composed of the names of eligibles who are legal residents of a county in which an appointment is to be made. If there are no available eligibles on the county register then the Director shall make appointments from a register set up on a congressional district basis. If there are no available eligibles on such congressional district register, then the Director shall make appointments from an appropriate State-wide register. Except as otherwise herein provided, appointments from such registers shall be made from among the names of the three persons having the highest rating upon such competitive examination.

It shall be the duty of the Advisory Board in each county to advise the County and State Department of Public Welfare and to recommend to such Departments the appointment of eligible applicants for positions in the respective county Department from the appropriate register or registers.

MERIT SYSTEM COUNCIL (con't)
1941. (con't)

All persons who, as of the date this Act takes effect, have been certified to positions in County Departments of Public Welfare from appropriate eligible registers of the State Department of Public Welfare and have successfully completed their probationary periods and received appointment shall be classified under...this act, and shall become members of the classified Merit System service without further examination. All persons employed in any county upon the effective date of this [act shall be admitted to the examination procedure for comparable positions without regard to the minimum qualifications and if they receive passing grades shall be employed in comparable positions]. Eligible registers now in custody of DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE to be transferred to MERIT SYSTEM COUNCIL. L. 1943, v.1, p.546. "ILLINOIS PUBLIC AID COMMISSION" substituted for "DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE."
